

Graduate Women NSW – City Branch Awards

Criteria for TAFE Tertiary Pathways Certificate Awards

Graduate Women NSW is committed to the advancement and wellbeing of women and girls through education.

We are delighted that in 2021, Graduate Women NSW - City Branch will present awards to three outstanding women who have successfully completed the TAFE Tertiary Preparation Certificate in order to undertake higher education.

These awards reflect our goals to inspire women to pursue learning. This year, we are able to make three substantial awards of $1000 each to women to recognise and encourage their pursuit of educational goals.

The awardee must be nominated by the relevant Head Teacher at TAFE in accordance with the specified criteria outlined below:

- Completed the Tertiary Preparation Certificate (TAFE) to a high standard
- Overcome personal hardship or disadvantage in completing their study
- Successfully completed the first semester of University study

Applications must be submitted via the Application Form to Susan Wilson susanawilson22@gmail.com and be accompanied by a reference from the Head Teacher with a copy of the University transcript or student record.

CLOSING DATE for applications is COB 23 July 2021.
